This is a prophetic moment that we mustn't miss. We have to work together across our class, colour and creed barriers.

Jonathan Oloyede, Convener of GDOP London & Team Leader of City Chapel

"...people from every tribe and nation, from right across Planet Earth, their hearts and faces turned towards God in prayer – this is a vision worth pursuing."

Phil Togwell, UK National Director, 24-7prayer

Having been involved for the last 3 years with sharing the vision of the Global Day of Prayer across the UK, it is exciting to see the commitment and unity from Christians right across London who want to take the time to come and pray together for the needs of our nation and our world at this crucial time. It will be a day to remember!

Jane Holloway – National Prayer Director, World Prayer Centre Birmingham (UK Global Day of Prayer Co-ordinator)

I am excited at that the Global Day of Prayer will secure effective spiritual transformation throughout the UK. Please bring your church community to Upton Park and join thousands of Christians in lifting our voices for God's blessing across the nations.

Joel Edwards. (Micah Challenge)

"Just imagine – a Global Day of Prayer! The Church in the nations of the earth giving thanks, interceding and making specific requests. Why don't you come from wherever you are to West Ham Football Stadium, joining thousands of others from across the capital and beyond so that our corporate prayers flow in this great river to the throne of God."

Gerald Coates Speaker, Author, Broadcaster

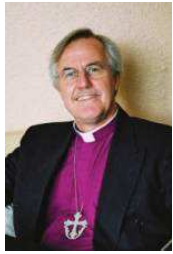

"With prayer as the foundation for all we do in the Palace of Westminster, Christians in Parliament are delighted to play our part in supporting the Global Day of Prayer. This unified focus of prayer to bless the nation is an exciting and inspiring event that will provide strength for today and hope for tomorrow."

David LANDRUM,

I am delighted to give my backing to the fourth Global Day of Prayer. I was very pleased to host participants in last year's Day of Prayer at Downing St and since then I have followed the growing momentum of the movement with great interest.

Christians across Britain and the world will be coming together once again in a spirit of fellowship and social witness. By offering prayers for your communities and nations you are continuing a long-standing Christian tradition of prayer and action for the common good and I am pleased to send my best wishes and support. Gordon Brown PM (2009)

There is no higher endeavour for a human being than to seek to worship and give praise to our God. Here is an opportunity for us all to gather as Christians all around London and from across the globe to worship and pray as one. Together in Upton Park let us lift our hearts and minds in prayer for the world to God's praise and for our own blessing.

The Rt Revd Laurie Green, Bishop of Bradwell, Essex.

It is very encouraging that our Churches across a wide spectrum of cultures and backgrounds are coming together at Pentecost to pray for London, its people and their needs. I would warmly encourage my brothers and sisters in the Catholic communities across London to join us at the West Ham Football Stadium so that we can witness to our Christian faith together in this remarkable way

The Rt Revd Bernard Longley Auxiliary Bishop of Westminster

Don't miss out on this foretaste of heaven: 'there before me was a great multitude from every nation, tribe, people and language standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb'. Let's stand in the stands together. Be united at West Ham united. Kneel on sacred turf. And say the Lord's Prayer for our capital and our world.

The Rt Revd David Hawkins Bishop of Barking, East London
Chair Global Day of Prayer London

I'm enormously excited at the possibility of the stadium being packed out with prayer warriors because when you look at the first church in Acts, it was born in a prayer meeting in the upper room. That's where it begins with servants being on their knees before the Lord praying for the nation.
